

MOCK TEST: PHYSICAL EDUCATION & SPORTS FOR CWSN

Class 12 Physical Education | Chapter 4

TOTAL MARKS: 50

TIME: 1 HOUR

LEVEL: BOARD PREP

SECTION A: Very Short Answer Questions (1 Mark Each)

- Q1. What does CWSN stand for in the context of physical education? [1]
- Q2. Name one type of disability under locomotor impairment. [1]
- Q3. Define "adaptive sports" in relation to children with special needs. [1]
- Q4. List one government initiative in India for promoting sports among CWSN. [1]
- Q5. What is the primary benefit of inclusive sports for CWSN? [1]

SECTION B: Short Answer Questions (3 Marks Each)

- Q6. Explain the role of physical education in the rehabilitation of children with visual impairments. Provide one example. [3]
- Q7. Discuss the challenges faced by CWSN in participating in mainstream sports. Suggest one solution. [3]
- Q8. Describe the importance of modified equipment in sports for children with intellectual disabilities. [3]
- Q9. How do initiatives like Paralympic Games promote awareness and participation for CWSN? Mention two aspects. [3]
- Q10. Outline the physiological adaptations needed for CWSN in endurance sports, with one example. [3]

SECTION C: Long Answer Questions (5 Marks Each)

Q11. Elaborate on the various types of disabilities in CWSN and their implications for physical education programs. Discuss strategies for inclusion. [5]

Q12. Analyze the benefits of sports participation for CWSN, including physical, psychological, and social aspects. Support with examples. [5]

Q13. Explain the role of teachers and coaches in adapting physical education for CWSN. Discuss training needs and ethical considerations. [5]

ANSWER KEY (Self-Evaluation Guide)

A1: Children With Special Needs.

A2: Cerebral palsy or Spinal cord injury.

A3: Sports modified to accommodate abilities of individuals with disabilities.

A4: Khelo India Programme (CWSN provisions).

A5: Fosters social integration and builds confidence.

A6: Improves balance & spatial awareness.
Example: Using auditory cues in navigating games.

A7: Challenge: Inaccessible facilities. Solution: Inclusive school policies and ramps.

A8: Ensures safety and reduces frustration.
Example: Lighter/larger balls.

A9: 1. Adaptive tech showcasing. 2. Role models inspiring mainstream acceptance.

A10: Gradual training to build stamina. Example: Rest intervals for muscular dystrophy.

A11 (Long Answer Summary): Types include locomotor, visual, hearing, and intellectual. Inclusion strategies involve Individualized Education Plans (IEPs), tactile aids for visual impairment, sign language for hearing, and simplified instructions for intellectual disabilities.

A12 (Long Answer Summary): Physical: Improved motor skills (Wheelchair b-ball). Psychological: Self-esteem (Overcoming swimming barriers). Social: Teamwork (Group friendships). Holistic development reduces isolation.

A13 (Long Answer Summary): Roles: Needs assessment and safety management. Training: Workshops on disability awareness. Ethics: Respecting dignity and promoting autonomy over overprotection.

Mock Test Chapter 4 By Mindmaster Physical Education